Dear Madam Lavy Hou,

I recently came across the Junior back-end developer position at your esteemed company on the LG Job page on LinkedIn, dated April 26, 2024. I'm writing to express my keen interest in applying for this opportunity.

I'm Tiv NGUOT a student in web development at Passerelles numériques Cambodia (PNC) in generation 2024. I have many experiences related to projects at my school(PNC). I have worked as a team and built projects for 4 projects. First, it relates to front-end web design(Music band). Second, the Python game project was similar Mario game but built locally and didn't host. Third, project JavaScript(POS). Four, VC1 project(Leave management system). I have used and learned programming such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Ajax JavaScript, Bootstrap, Node.js PHP, OOP-TypeScript, and MySQL databases. additionally, I have used tools such as GitHub, Jira, Clockify, Figma, and Cava.

I firmly believe that this role aligns well with the skills and experiences gained throughout my academic journey. If you give me the chance to collaborate with your team, I'm committed to bringing my utmost dedication and effort to the role, fostering a culture of diligence and excellence.

I would be happy to further explain my motivation for applying to the position of junior back-end developer during a personal meeting. You can reach me either by phone number at 088-615-9728 or by email at tiv.nguot@gmail.com.

Thank you for your consideration, I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best Regards,

Tiv NGUOT
