TIV NGUOT

Student of web development

I'm a student of web development at Passerellesnumeriques Cbodia, and I'm deeply passionate about working with web technologies. My coursework and projects have equipped me with practical skills in web development, and I'm eager to apply and further develop these skills in a professional setting. In my free time, I enjoy listening to music, exploring YouTube and TikTok, doing workouts, and using these platforms for self-learning and personal growth.

Experience During the Studying

February,12 to March 29, 2024

VC1 Project

I developed a Leave Management System (LMS) with my team where I serve as the Git manager in Version Control in VC1. My responsibilities include managing our code versions on GitHub. We utilized PHP, MySQL, JavaScript, Ajax, and Bootstrap for development. Additionally, we employed Jira software for task management and Clockify for time tracking. It wasn't deployed online

December 11 to December 21, 2023

Frontend Project Kick-off

I built the Point of Sale (POS) with the team and used the programming languages HTML, CSS, and Javascript. The tool we use is GitHub to manage the task and control code. I serve as GIT Manager in the project beyond I help my team members when have errors and we have good communication for work in the project.

October 18 to October 27, 2023

Python game

My team and I developed a game similar to Mario using Python. We utilized GitHub for version control. The game was hosted locally on our personal computers (PNC) and wasn't deployed online.

September 12 to October 3, 2023

Web Design

I collaborated with a team on a web design project centered around a Music Bank theme. Our work focused on designing the website layout. For this project, we utilized HTML, CSS, and GitHub for version control to develop the website design
